

Success for the Photo Contest of GOURMAND Guests in Kuala Lumpur!

The guests of the Gourmand Awards make these Awards so special every year. One of the impressive aspects is the number of photos that are taken by guests. Following a suggestion by Stephen Bateman, Gourmand has decided to reward this effort with a competition for the best photos. The five winners will receive a free invitation to our next Best in the World Gourmand Awards in Beijing. The best photos will now all be published in the Gourmand Yearbook 2007.
